

ELFA – LSGL Special Issue on Global Legal Education Call for Papers

This special issue seeks to provide a platform for publications for ELFA and LSGL members' Faculty, to examine a broad range of issues in connection with global legal education. Global legal education encompasses the study of law from a global perspective, acknowledging the interconnectedness of legal systems, cultures, and societies worldwide. This call for papers invites submissions within the following sub-themes: (1) approaches to global legal education, (2) legal education and global challenges, (3) ethos, values and skills in global legal education, (4) global legal education, AI and legal tech, (5) legal education networks and global legal education, and (6) equality and global legal education.

Guest editors:

Soledad Atienza Becerril, IE Law, Madrid, Co-President of LSGL

Verónica Ruiz Abou-Nigm, Edinburgh Law School, President of ELFA

Manuscript submission information:

You are invited to submit your manuscript before the submission deadline of 1 September 2024. Acceptance of selected publications will be confirmed by 15 December 2024. Publication is expected by February 2025. For any inquiries about contribution topics, please contact the Guest Editors at elfa.lsgl@gmail.com.

Please refer to the EJLE Guide for Authors to prepare your manuscript. When submitting your manuscripts following the EJLE submission guidelines.